

Embracing your Creativity:

A Night of Super Fun Good Times with YA Author Lance Rubin

Wednesday,
November 15, 2017
7:00 – 8:00 pm

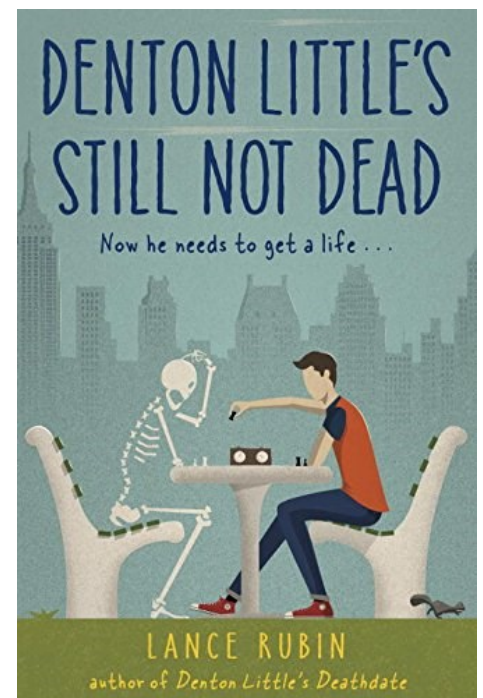

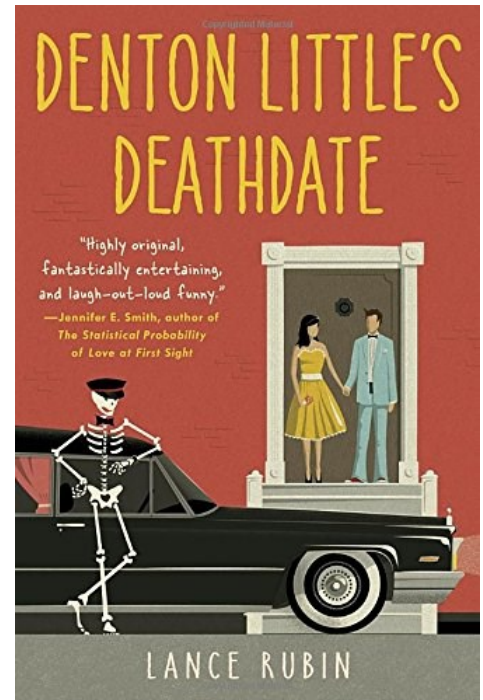

Lance Rubin, author of the ILA-award winning YA novel,

DENTON'S LITTLE DEATHDATE

and its sequel,

DENTON LITTLE'S STILL NOT DEAD,

will be talking about embracing one's creativity in all its many forms. Lance is not only a writer but an actor, comedian, and musician as well, and through some fun exercises, including improv comedy and possibly a short writing exercise, he'll encourage everyone to feel confident in their own unique creative way of seeing the world. There will also be a Q and A in which Lance will happily answer any and all questions and give unlimited high-fives.
