

The

RB EXPRESS

In Concert

Exemplifying the tight harmonies and rhythms of the early street corner groups of the 1950s, the RB Express offers a perfect blend of your favorite music incorporating professionally orchestrated tracks, stage presence and audience interaction to deliver a dynamic and engaging performance. The RB Express is one of the finest, most entertaining bands to emerge from the Jersey Shore who has performed with such artists as Frankie Lymon's Teenagers, Little Anthony and the Imperials, The Tokens, The Happenings, Lou Christie, and many others. They appeared in the film, "The Old Man and the Seymore," and on television with "Fox and Friends." In addition to local performances, they have performed in New York, Pennsylvania, and Connecticut.
